You're Invited! Larimer County Workforce Center 2016 Summer Youth Open Houses

Are you looking for a summer job? Are you interested in starting your own business? The Larimer County Workforce Center's CareerRise will be hosting two Open Houses for youth, young adults and parents to learn about these services. A few of the featured programs at the Open Houses will include:

Larimer County Conservation Corps (LCCC)

Accepting job applications for summer seasonal positions.

Young Entrepreneur Tournament (YET)

Reviewing basic business ideas and accepting applications for this business accelerator class.

Career Road Trips

Connecting youth and young adults to careers through business tours.

Also featured:

Scholarships, internships, and other employment services.

Attendees will learn from a youth-friendly employer panel who will describe their best practices for executing a summer job search.
