Are good employees leaving you for other jobs? You may not be using today's best tools for engaging and motivating them. Skill Works training makes it easier to develop and retain the right employees and equip them with the right skills.

In today's competitive employment marketplace, employers need all the tools they can find to inspire and keep superior talent.

Participants in this workshop series will achieve these outcomes:

Onboarding – Once you've identified the most promising candidates, you need a ramping-up strategy to ensure their success. Onboarding is the first step toward retaining employees for the long term.

Workforce Training – To safeguard your invested time and money in hiring, invest in the growth of new people so they'll stay with you. More learning opportunities lead to greater engagement from today's purpose-driven employees. This workshop shows you how to earn their loyalty.

Parking validation provided for Civic Center Garage on Mason.
